Hitz noted the current situation involving S. 2284 and the Zablocki Amendment re the HPSCI markup scheduled for tomorrow. A brief discussion followed on where the Administration stands at the moment on this matter. Mr. Carlucci noted the President is being urged to support the Zablocki Amendment and a cleaned-up version of S. 2284. He said, however, direct support from the President remains uncertain. Relatedly, Mr. Carlucci said, at his SSCI appearance yesterday re Identities Legislation, he was asked if he would support S. 2284. He said he responded in the affirmative regarding the Bill's statutory language, but cautioned that problems remain re interpretation. Mayerfeld noted additional problems posed by the Attorney General's position re S. 2284. []
